SUBJECT: NATIONAL COUNCIL FOR URBAN ECONOMIC DEVELOPMENT

TO: Distribution

The National Council for Urban Economic Development (CUED) will host a series of meetings on October 21 and 22, 1996, with representatives from local and regional organizations to discuss the creation of an economic development strategy for the new Fernald Community Reuse Organization. Your participation is requested during a special session on worker transition issues.

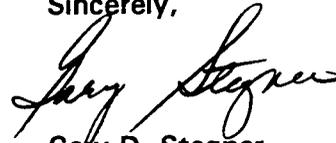

Retained by the U.S. Department of Energy (DOE), CUED is an organization comprised of economic development practitioners from around the country. CUED's primary mission is to help communities, affected by DOE downsizing and site closures, develop and revitalize their local economies. DOE recently established the new Fernald Community Reuse Organization to serve as the Fernald communities' focal point on such issues as future land use planning of the Fernald Environmental Management Project (FEMP); disposition of excess facilities and equipment; and community transition and economic development opportunities for the surrounding communities following remediation of the FEMP.

During CUED's two-day visit, team members will gather participants' interpretation of the opportunities for, and obstacles to, successful economic development in our region; identify existing regional economic development programs; and determine whether additional regional economic development services are needed. Based on participants' feedback, the CUED team will then recommend to the Fernald Community Reuse Organization an overall strategy to promote regional economic development and community revitalization.

The two days have been organized into topic-specific, informal roundtable discussions between the CUED team and participants. You are invited to attend the session on worker transition issues on Monday, October 21 from 2:15 p.m. to 3:45 p.m. The meeting will be held at the Venice Historical Antique Mall, Estate Hall, 4299 Hamilton-Cleves Road, Ross, Ohio.

Your input on these issues is important. To confirm your attendance, please call Julie Loerch, Fluor Daniel Fernald, at 648-4071. I hope you can join the discussion.

Sincerely,

Gary D. Stegner
