DOE Invites Your Participation in Selecting the Final Environmental Cleanup Remedy for the DOE Areas at the LEHR Site, University of California, Davis

The U.S. Department of Energy's Proposed Plan for the final environmental cleanup of the former Laboratory for Energy Related Health Research (LEHR) Site at the University of California, Davis, is available for public review at the Davis public library and on-line on the DOE LEHR website.

DOE wants to hear your views on the final cleanup remedy for the DOE areas of the LEHR Site. Your input on the DOE LEHR Proposed Plan is an important part of the decision-making process.

The 30-day public comment period for the DOE Proposed Plan will run from Oct. 15 through Nov. 17, 2008 and written comments may be submitted at any time during that period, either by mail or e-mail.

You also have the chance to provide verbal and written comments on the Proposed Plan at a public meeting on Oct. 23, 2008 at the Veterans Memorial Center in Davis. DOE will discuss the site's background, summarize the Proposed Plan, answer questions, and receive your comments.

Public Meeting:

7 p.m. Thursday, Oct. 23, 2008
Veterans Memorial Center, Club Room
203 E. 14th St. (E.14th and B St.)
Davis, CA

Copies of the Proposed Plan and information on the LEHR cleanup, including the Administrative Record, are available at:
