Purpose of Contact Status of ISEDS availability on the Internet and additional SWD data

Discussion

Andy wanted to know when ISEDS would be available on the Internet and if I could forward another RFSecure form for access. I responded that the latest schedule for ISEDS's rollout on the Internet is the end of March 2003. I then transmitted another RFSecure access form to Andy for CDPHE via email. I inquired to Andy about the continuous surface water monitoring (FLOW) data set that was transmitted in October. He reported that he had received it but had not yet loaded it and that he was bringing on additional staff for support. Andy wanted to know when he could expect the groundwater data from SWD after we had agreed to prioritize the transmittal of FLOW data ahead of the groundwater data. I stated that we could provide the groundwater by the end of March. Andy inquired into the soil and sediment data. I reported that we are still integrating with RADMS and I did not know when I could provide the soil and sediment data. Andy asked about the older data, pre-RADMS, up to 1999 or 2000. I stated that we could try to get this soil and sediment data set to him by September 2003.
