1.0 Community Meeting Room, Program Shelter, and Program/Speaker Policy

1.1 Purpose

As a community asset, the Fernald Preserve fosters wildlife habitat and provides educational opportunities through environmental stewardship. The Visitors Center community meeting room, the Program Shelter (PS), and the programs/speakers offer unique and diverse ways to explore the site’s history and learn of the environmental transformation that continues at the site. These facilities and services are available for use by the public. This policy describes the application process and use requirements for the community meeting room, PS, and programs/speakers.

The U.S. Department of Energy (DOE) Office of Legacy Management (LM) is the steward of the Fernald Preserve. The S.M. Stoller Corporation, a wholly owned subsidiary of Huntington Ingalls Industries (Stoller), is the Legacy Management Support contractor responsible for operating the Fernald Preserve.

1.2 General Use Policies, Procedures, and Terms of Use

Organizations that wish to use the Visitors Center meeting rooms or PS or wish to schedule a program/speaker agree to abide by the General Use Policies, Procedures, and Terms of Use:

- Applications for the use of the community meeting room or PS or to schedule a program/speaker require LM permission and approval. LM reserves the right to limit or prohibit any use that represents a threat to the health or safety of employees or visitors, or to the orderly use of the site and Visitors Center.
- Users agree to abide by all regulations relating to the use of the facilities and accept responsibility for all damages caused to the trails, buildings, or equipment beyond normal wear.
