Discussion

During a phone conversation on 11/11/03 between to David Kruchek (CDPHE) and Duane Parsons (RISS), in-process surveys of Building 881 block walls was discussed. The topic of discussion was performing in-process unrestricted release surveys of the block walls in order to make room inside the building to perform other stripout and decontamination work more efficiently.

Duane Parsons explained to David Kruchek that the 881 project is in the process of stripout and decon, and as a part of that process block walls need to be radiologically and beryllium surveyed and removed in order to demo the building, and perform stripout and decontamination work more efficiently. It was explained that these in-process surveys would be performed in a similar manner to PDS surveys, such that the block wall rubble could still be utilized for 881 backfill during demolition. An adequate number of uniformly distributed and biased radiological surveys (i.e., removable, total, media and scan surveys) and beryllium surveys (i.e., smears) will be collected to ensure the block walls meet PDSP unrestricted release levels prior to removal and staging.

ADMIN RECORD

Once the block walls are surveyed and meet the PDSP unrestricted release levels, the walls will be torn down and staged either in an approved outside location, or within the building in an approved location. If the block walls will be placed in an inside location, then this location will first need to undergo a PDS survey and meet all PDSP unrestricted release criteria.

Dave Kruchek requested to be given copies of the block wall surveys prior to them being torn down.
